Christian Berger, PhD.
Centre for Social Conflict and Cohesion Studies
Psychology Department, Universidad Católica de Chile

Associate Professor at the School of Psychology, P. Universidad Católica de Chile. He is also Head of the Doctorate Program in Psychology at the same University, and Editor of the magazine Psykhe. He obtained his doctorate degree in educational psychology from the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign, United States. His research work focuses on interpersonal relationships in childhood and adolescence, and how status, aggressiveness, and prosociality become part of peer culture. His work also takes an ecological and longitudinal perspective and currently is doing an applied research in the field of proenvironmental behaviors.
